Tools and Tips for Working Remotely and Securely

- o Learn how remote work can be

COVID-19 is a world-changing event for all of us. For people with IDD, besides the impact to their health and wellness, there are real risks of losing supports and services both during the crisis and afterward. This webinar will focus two things: risks and risk mitigation.

Dr. Craig Escudé, President of Health Risk Screening, Inc., will discuss the impact on health AND on the IDD support system. His discussion will include practical action steps and currently available resources that can help identify those at most risk from serious consequences from COVID-19.
